National Level Seminar titled 'Revisiting the Intersectionality of Literature, Gender and Caste'

Report

Type of Event: National Level Seminar titled 'Revisiting the Intersectionality of Literature, Gender and Caste' organized by the Department of English Studies at Vijayanagara Shri Krishnadevaraya University, Ballari, Karnataka.

Mode: Offline Mode

Date and Place: 31st August 2023

In addition to traditional classroom teaching, students have an opportunity to participate and present research papers at a National Level Seminar in the presence of the eminent and renowned writer Shri Mahesh Dattani. A well-known play written by Mahesh Dattani is prescribed in the syllabus for students for the upcoming semester. In view of the same, attending the workshop will enrich students' knowledge and understanding of the author and his works.

Objectives

1. To facilitate a dynamic exchange of ideas, perspectives, and research findings with fellow scholars and students from diverse institutions.
2. To provide an opportunity to students to enhance their presentation, communication, and critical thinking skills.
3. To enable accompanying faculty members to engage in networking with colleagues from other institutions that will provide exposure to innovative teaching methodologies and emerging research trends.
4. To demonstrate the commitment of our college to academic excellence and intellectual pursuits.
