About Harmal Panchakroshi Shikshan Mandal

Harmal Panchakrashi Shikshan Mandal (HPSM) is a non-profit society actively involved in imparting quality education to all students hailing from different parts of Goa for more than four decades. This educational society was founded in 1967 with a mere enrolment of 26 students. Presently, the educational complex has a yearly enrolment of 2000 students from nursery to undergraduate Including 'Aastha' a school for Special Children. The mandal aims to provide high quality education and child care in a safe , respectful and inclusive environment that builds a foundation for life long learning.

About Directorate of Social Welfare Government of Goa

The Directorate of Social Welfare deals with the implementation of Schemes for the welfare of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes, persons with disabilities, Senior Citizens, destitutes, Prisoners and their dependents, Safai Karmacharis and Beggars.

About the Conference

Inclusive education ensures that every learner, regardless of ability, background, or socio-economic status, has access to quality education in a supportive environment.

This conference brings together educators, researchers, policymakers, NGOs and students to explore innovative strategies, policies, and practices that promote inclusion at all levels of education.

We invite scholars, practitioners, and professionals to contribute their insights, research findings, and best practices to this dialogue by submitting abstracts for presentation.
