Details of the program:

The Department of Mathematics, in collaboration with the Department of Education, commemorated National Mathematics Day, honoring the birth anniversary of Srinivasa Ramanujan. The event was designed to foster a deeper appreciation for mathematics among B.Sc B.Ed. students, who are future educators. The program commenced with a formal welcome by Ms. Mavisha Naik, followed by Ms. Rusy Parab introducing the esteemed resource person, Mr. Sagar Ram Sakordekar. The Principal then addressed the gathering, emphasizing the significance of the day and presented a memento to Mr. Sakordekar. The central feature of the event was a lecture on "Vedic Mathematics" delivered by Mr. Sagar Ram Sakordekar. He shared practical techniques and insights, making mathematics more engaging and accessible for the student teachers. Following the lecture, an interactive question-and-answer session allowed students to clarify their doubts and deepen their understanding. The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Arya Vaze.
