Preamble:

HPSM's Ganpat Parsekar College of Education is committed to promoting equitable access to education by supporting students from socially and economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Recognizing that financial constraints often hinder students from pursuing and completing higher education, the college endeavors to facilitate and administer scholarship schemes that help alleviate such barriers. This policy aims to ensure transparent, fair, and effective distribution of scholarships, aligned with national guidelines and institutional priorities, fostering inclusiveness and academic excellence.

Objectives:

- To provide financial aid to meritorious students facing economic hardship, especially those belonging to Scheduled Castes (SC), Scheduled Tribes (ST), Other Backward Classes (OBC - non-creamy layer), minorities, women, General (EWS) and persons with disabilities.
- To encourage and enable disadvantaged students to enrol and continue their education without financial stress.
- To create awareness among prospective and current students about available scholarship schemes.
- To establish clear, fair, and accountable processes for scholarship applications, verification, and disbursal.
- To promote social justice and reduce dropout rates among marginalized students.

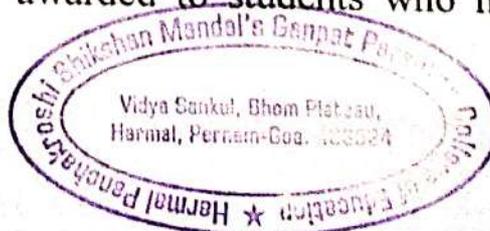

Scope:

This policy covers:

- Government-sponsored scholarships (central and state) for reserved categories.
- College-level scholarships and financial aids funded by internal resources or donations.
- Scholarships granted under schemes from bodies such as the Minority Welfare Department, CSR and other agencies.

Eligibility Criteria:

Scholarships will generally be awarded to students who meet the following criteria:

- Enrolment as a regular student in any course offered by HPSM's Ganpat Parsekar College of Education.
- Belonging to any of the disadvantaged groups recognized for reservation or welfare benefits (SC, ST, OBC non-creamy layer, minorities, EWS, physically challenged).
- Satisfying the income limits prescribed by sponsoring bodies.
- Maintaining minimum academic performance as defined by the college or scholarship providers.
- Submission of valid and complete documents supporting caste, income, category status, and academic record.

Application Process:

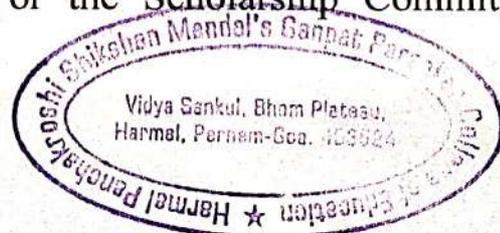

- Information about scholarships and application deadlines will be regularly disseminated via notice boards, college website, and orientation programs.
- Students must submit scholarship applications in prescribed formats along with supporting documents before stipulated deadlines.
- The Scholarship Committee will verify documents, conduct eligibility checks, and prepare a shortlist of eligible candidates.
- Selected candidates will be intimated and scholarships disbursed as per the schedule and funding availability.
- Renewal of scholarships will depend on satisfactory academic performance and continued eligibility.

Monitoring and Reporting:

- The Scholarship Committee will maintain records of all applications, selections, and disbursements.
- A quarterly report on scholarship schemes, coverage, and accounts will be submitted to the Principal and Governing Body.
- The Committee will review the effectiveness of schemes periodically and suggest improvements.
- Feedback from beneficiaries will be collected to address challenges and enhance program reach.

Grievance Redressal:

Students may submit grievances regarding scholarship processing, eligibility, or disbursement to the Equal Opportunity Centre or the Scholarship Committee.

Teacher-Initiated Awards and Recognitions-

The faculty members of HPSM's Ganpat Parsekar College of Education have always taken a keen interest in encouraging and motivating students to excel in academics, co-curricular activities, and professional development. In recognition of outstanding performance and to inspire healthy competition, several teachers of the college have personally instituted cash prizes and awards. These prizes are awarded annually to deserving students on the basis of merit, talent, and all-round development. The initiative reflects the teachers' commitment not only to academic excellence but also to nurturing values of dedication, hard work, and achievement among student-teachers.
